

DREAMS AND INTENTION

Presented by Lynne Larson

Saturday, October 17, 2009 9:00 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

Every morning we wake up to new beginnings.
How do you greet your day? Do you feel hopeful and energized?
Has an experience from the past closed a door on you?
Do you believe that other doors are waiting to be opened?

We have choices.* Our best intentions are only as good as the perception of ourselves and our ability to choose. We may not be able to control what happens in life, but our response to those events determines the outcome. For the first time we are understanding brain function as a way of building positive patterns of inspiration and hope while letting go of negative patterns of fear and discouragement. The Divine Creator formed us as beings who dream with purpose. Our dream content is an important key in revealing how we see ourselves and the paths we take. We have the ability to make positive life choices in a different way than ever before.

Tap into your capacity to fulfill your goals and aspirations.
Your dreams reveal the life force energy within you that only you can claim.
Your Dream Psyche longs for you to feel enthusiasm and joy of purpose and will help guide you on your journey.
